

SRI GURU TEGH BAHADUR INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(AFFILIATED TO GURU GOBIND SINGH INDRAPRASTHA UNIVERSITY)
(UNDER THE MANAGEMENT OF DELHI SIKH GURUDWARA MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE)

FEMALE FETICIDE

Female feticide in India remains a grave concern, highlighting the persistent gender imbalance in the country. Despite legal restrictions, the practice of selectively aborting female fetuses continues, driven by socio-cultural factors and a preference for male offspring. This tragic phenomenon not only robs countless unborn girls of their right to life but also perpetuates harmful gender disparities and disrupts the societal fabric. Addressing this issue requires concerted efforts, including education, awareness campaigns, and stringent enforcement of laws, to ensure the equal value and opportunity for every child, regardless of their gender.